“The Daily Prayer of the Church is, as Martin Hauser observes, the treasure Christians took with them when they left the synagogue long ago. It is prayer designed for all the people of God, both clergy and laity, so that together they can join the perpetual praise of the choirs of heaven.”

- Philip Pfatteicher

LONG-AWAITED, DECADES IN PREPARATION ... AND NOW AVAILABLE

THE BOOK: This treasury of prayer—in the centuries old Anglican, Lutheran, Roman Catholic tradition of the offices—is arranged to facilitate use by clergy and laity; to be a daily office book for all the people of God. It is intended for the faithful of many denominations—to be used whole or in part, in private, in families, or small groups in churches.

This complete prayer book includes text and music: Evening Prayer for each season of the Church year (Advent, Christmas-Epiphany, General Time, Lent, Holy Week, Easter); Morning Prayer for each season of the Church year; Compline; Forms for Prayer During the Day (mid-morning, noon, mid-afternoon); Proper antiphons with each Psalm and with the Gospel Canticles; Psalm prayers and prayers appropriate for each Old Testament and New Testament canticle; Hymns ancient and modern with music; Two-year BCP-LBW daily lectionary; Proper Responsories in Morning Prayer; An ecumenical course of collects, ancient and modern, for every Sunday of the year and for every day of Christmas, Lent, and Easter; An enriched calendar of festivals and commemorations; Prayers, intercessions, devotional prayers.
